It's an Old, Old Story---

There are persons who constantly clamor.

They complain of oppression, speculation and pernicious influence of accumulated wealth.

They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations and all means by which small capitalists become united in order to produce important and beneficial results.

They carry on mad hostilities against all established institutions.

They would choke the fountain of industry and dry all streams.

In a country of unbounded liberty, they clamor against oppression.

In a country where property is more evenly divided than anywhere else, they rend the air shouting agrarian doctrines.

In a country where wages of labor are high beyond parallel, they would teach the laborer he is but an oppressed slave.

Sir, what can such men want? What do they mean? They want nothing sir, but to enjoy the fruits of another man's labor.

From a speech by

DANNIEL WEBSTER

in the U. S. Senate in 1838
